Tranche	Zone	LA	Keyworkers	Description of need and organisations
1	A	Manchester	3	experience Gender informed/specific service providing expertise in working with women.
				The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences:
				 Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of women's lived experience of inequality. Experience of incorporating an understanding of the impacts of Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) and how to respond appropriately into their services and women's issues more generally. Experience of partnership working to address multiple support needs. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Organisational structures: policies, staff recruitment training and support - implementing policies which embed a gendered approach, recruiting knowledgeable, empathic, compassionate and resilient staff that are trained on violence against women.
2	В	Rochdale, Bury	3	Gender informed/specific service with and Bolton		expertise in engaging and working with younger people (18 - 25). The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of women's lived experience of inequality. Experience of incorporating an understanding of the impacts of Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) and how to respond appropriately into their services and women's issues more generally. Experience of partnership working to address multiple support needs.

			1
				• Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma.
				Organisational structures: policies, staff recruitment training and support - implementing policies which embed a gendered approach, recruiting knowledgeable, empathic, compassionate and resilient staff that are trained on violence against women.
				 Experience of delivering services specifically designed for and with young people.
				women and specifically those who are care leavers.
				• Deep understanding of the effects of care on young people and the additional disadvantages care leaver experience.
				• Experience of the duties and regulations required by The Care Leaver Act 2010.
				 Experience of multi-agency working and Experience of multi-agency working and working with statutory services.
3	C	Oldham,	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in
3	С	Tameside and	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and ex-
3	C		3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in
3	C	Tameside and	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and ex- offenders.
3	C	Tameside and	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and ex- offenders. The bidder should exhibit the following
3	С	Tameside and	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and ex- offenders.
3	С	Tameside and	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and ex- offenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences:
3	С	Tameside and	3	working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and ex- offenders. The bidder should exhibit the following
3	С	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders.
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma.
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Experience of multi-agency working and
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Experience of multi-agency working and working with statutory services especially
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Experience of multi-agency working and
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Experience of multi-agency working and working with statutory services especially those from the Criminal Justice system.
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Experience of multi-agency working and working with statutory services especially those from the Criminal Justice system. Deep understanding of the Offender
3	C	Tameside and	3	 working with statutory services. Offender support service with expertise in engaging and working with current and exoffenders. The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experiences: Experience of delivering offender support services to both male and female offenders. Organisational commitment to work from an understanding of the inequalities experienced by ex-offenders. Experience of delivering services that are psychologically informed and which respond to trauma. Experience of multi-agency working and working with statutory services especially those from the Criminal Justice system. Deep understanding of the Offender Rehabilitation Act 2014 and its differential reintegration. Experience and evidence of innovative approaches to address reoffending. Commitment and understanding to using a gender informed approach. Organisational structures: policies, staff recruitment training and support - implementing policies which embed a gendered approach, recruiting knowledgeable, empathic, compassionate and resilient staff that are trained in working with offenders and ex-offenders.

4	D	Trafford, Wigan and Salford	3	 Complex behaviour management service The bidder should exhibit the following attributes and experience: A strong track record of working with and supporting people with complex behaviours Experience of delivering services that provided a bespoke / person-centred approach to people with complex behavioural issues. Demonstrate an approach to identifying the triggers, remove sources of anxiety and dealing with the root trauma's driving the behaviours and resulting consequences. Experience of and staff trained in working with people who have mental health issues, learning difficulties and acquired brain injuries. Organisational structures: policies, staff recruitment training and support - implementing policies which embed a trauma informed approach , recruiting knowledgeable, empathic, compassionate and resilient staff